

2006 Friend of the Family Recipient

In 2006, Birmingham Parent magazine recognized the best companies for working families. Buffalo Rock Company was honored to be named a 2006 Friend of the Family Recipient (and awarded the attached plaque) in recognition for excelling in the area of work/family practices.

Buffalo Rock Company is aware of the importance of work-life balance, family cohesiveness, good health and, of course, the satisfaction and security in working in an organization which provides good family-friendly practices.

Buffalo Rock is committed to implementing work-life initiatives and offering benefits that enhance the well-being of our employee-partners' health and contribute to achieving our business objectives.
